Dear Sirs:

My attention has recently been called to a publication printed in 1928, "Coinage of Saorstát Éireann". May I ask if it would be possible for you to send a copy of this brochure for the use of our library? The interest and value of it for our purposes will be apparent and we should greatly appreciate having a copy on file.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Any reply to this communication should be addressed to:-

Pbns.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of 9th instant regarding "Coinage of Saorstát Éireann, 1928", I regret that this Office is not in a position to supply complimentary copies of this publication. Copies may however be obtained from the Government Publications Sale Office, 5 Nassau Street, Dublin, price 4/0¹/₂d. post free.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

H. J. Wrenn
for Controller.

Gentlemen:

Will you kindly send to this office, a copy of "Coinage of Saorstát Éireann, 1928", for which you will find one dollar enclosed.
We are informed by the Stationery Office that the price is 4/0^{1d} and we believe that the enclosure will amply cover the cost.

Very truly yours,

AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

for the Secretary.
